

You are invited to the Digital Health for the Bush Workshop

Thursday November 7, 2019

Presented by the Australian Digital Health Agency, Asia Pacific College of Business and Law, Charles Darwin University and the organisers of Broadband for the Bush.

Tim Kelsey, Chief Executive Officer and Clinical Professor Meredith Makeham, Chief Medical Adviser, Australian Digital Health Agency are facilitating a workshop to gain a better understanding of stakeholders' experiences with digital health and telehealth in the NT. We are keen to hear from grass roots Territorians to discuss how access to digital health and telehealth can benefit regional and remote people and access be increased. The workshop will run from 3-5 pm and will be followed by a networking session from 5-6.30 pm. Attendance is free. Please register at: <https://www.trybooking.com/BGEAS>

The aims of the workshop are:

- To better understand the Northern Territory Health experience and challenges.
- Gain an understanding of what actions need to be taken to increase access to digital health tools for regional and remote Territorians.
- Identify research needs and provide directions to researchers.

Territorians: Tell us your digital health stories!
